

Fred B. Seely

Prof. Fred B. Seely was Department Head of Theoretical and Applied Mechanics, University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign from 1934 until 1952.

Prof. Seely co-wrote three books on mechanics. He was honored in 1949 with the ASME Worcester Reed Warner Medal. Being an outstanding mechanics researcher and educator, he also received numerous other honors and awards including the ASEE Lamme Medal in 1950 and the UIUC College of Engineering's Alumni Award in 1966.