It is essential that the expenditure of University funds for entertainment and business meetings be prudent and in a manner which is in keeping with accepted standards of the educational community and compatible with its status as a tax-supported institution. Some UC policies governing business/entertainment expenses that you should be aware of:

1) Please note that the meal breakdown isn’t automatic. Detailed receipts MUST accompany all claims over $75 to be reimbursed.

2) Breakfast, Lunch, and Dinner business meetings, with advance prior approval from the appropriate office, can be claimed provided that: a) The meeting must be for the purpose of discussion; b) An alternative meeting time is not possible; and c) Number of UC personnel in attendance must have a documented, substantial, and bona fide business purpose.

3) Entertainment expenses may be claimed from contracts and grants, gifts, or endowments, as well as from State funds. Note, however, that contract grant policies may differ from that of the University’s. Please refer to the respective contract agreement for details.

4) Alcoholic beverages may not be purchased from State General Funds (19900) or Federal funds. Other fund sources may also have restrictions so please consult contract agreements for details. When calculating alcohol total be sure to include tax and tip.

5) Expenses for holiday parties, going away events (not retirements) department picnics, etc. are not allowable
