This reappointment is limited to the dates specified and is contingent upon the availability of funds; therefore, it involves no presumption by the University or the individual of reappointment unless there is a definite written offer of reappointment. Thus your reappointment is self-terminating on the ending date shown above; no further notice will be given to that effect. During the term of reappointment the Postdoctoral Scholar appointment may be temporarily reduced in order to accommodate a part-time lecturer appointment. The combined percent of all appointments will equal 100%. Lecturer appointments may be proposed by the Department Chair with the consent of the postdoctoral scholar and PI. If applicable, a Dean's appointment letter outlining the terms of the lecturer appointment will be provided. All other terms of the original appointment letter apply to this reappointment. If there is a signed Postdoctoral Scholar Supplemental Information form attached to this document, the terms outlined in the Postdoctoral Scholar Supplemental Information form will apply to the term of reappointment. Your continuing appointment is contingent upon your being able to provide evidence of authorization to work in the United States as required by Federal Law. Postdoctoral Scholars in the University of California are exclusively represented by the United Auto Workers Union (UAW). The website address for the Union is http://www.uaw.org/ and the Collective Bargaining Agreement containing the terms and conditions applicable to postdoctoral scholars can be found at: http://graduate.ucr.edu/Postdocs.html
I understand and agree to the terms stated above.
